TOUR SUMMARY

Tanzania offers the finest Game viewing opportunities in Africa and this exciting photographic tour visits the most outstanding of these wildlife locations : Ndotu Ngorongoro Conservation Area, the amazing Serengeti and the unbelievable Ngorongoro Crater. In January, February and April the vast Serengeti National Park is home to huge herds of wildebeests when more than 5,000 calves are born every day ! Each year over 1 million wildebeests and 300,000 zebras migrate up to 1,000 kilometers following ever changing food and water supplies. After the short rains the southern Serengeti plains are a rich food supply as new grass is stimulated to grow, providing the migrants with the nutrition essential for successfully rearing their young. Alongside the wildebeests and zebras will be many thousand Thomson gazelles who have similar but shorter annual movements. With so many herbivores, their predators will be close by. We hope to see all the big cats, lions, leopards and cheetahs. Spotted hyenas, jackals and vultures will be present in large numbers feeding on the carcasses.
